TCDSU would like to thank everyone involved in running this election. We would like to commend the Chair of the Electoral Commission, Yannick Gloster, for his commitment to ensuring that this election remained fair throughout and for facilitating each and every hustings, meeting and event during this election process.

We would like to thank Secretary of the Electoral Commission and incumbent Education Officer, Megan O'Connor for orchestrating this entire process and her dedication to ensuring the smooth running of these elections. The combined efforts of all members of the Electoral Commission Abigail, Adam, Alice, Bláithín, Emma and Sean, who ensured that we could deliver the first online-only TCDSU sabbatical elections and made sure that candidates could find a platform despite the lack of physical campaigning.

We would like to thank the team at EVIABI LTD for providing their voting system and constant technical support throughout the election process.

We would finally like to thank the incumbent Communications & Marketing Officer, Philly Holmes who ensured that lines of communication remained open, emails were sent on time, graphics were prepared and made sure that every candidate had an opportunity to make use of the TCDSU platforms in a fair and consistent manner.

We extend our sincerest congratulations to the incoming sabbatical team and wish them the best of luck during their term!

Kind Regards,

Philly Holmes, Communications and Marketing Officer TCDSU
