

SCHEDULE 7 / TCDSU CONSTITUTION

9.7 Schedule 7 – Union Communications and Publications

9.7.1 Management of Schedule 7

a) The Communications & Marketing Officer shall be responsible for the management of Schedule 7.

9.7.2 Content of Schedule 7

Schedule 7 shall contain:

- a) A list of Union communication media and publications with a description of each.
- b) A list of people responsible for each medium and publication.

a) The Union communication media and publications are as follows:

Publications

The University Times

An editorially independent broadsheet printed every three weeks during the undergraduate academic calendar. It also has online presence on www.universitytimes.ie.

Radius

Sister publication of The University Times which focuses on cultural news inside and outside the walls of Trinity College Dublin.

The University Times Magazine

Sister magazine of The University Times which accompanies The University Times in print.

The TCDSU Cookbook

New for 2017/18. A cookbook created in collaboration with DU Food & Drink Society with recipes suited to the student lifestyle.

The TCDSU Diary

One of our oldest publications - the TCDSU diary is produced every year and is distributed during Freshers' Week. It functions as a diary and also as a source of information for students on the Union.

Living in Dublin Guide

The Living in Dublin Guide provides information on the housing market in Dublin and surrounding areas as well as tips and tricks on how to get set up with utilities and other services in Ireland. It is particular useful to International students as it also contains information on obtaining visas.

Exam Success Booklet

This publication provides Trinity students with all the relevant information in order to sit an exam. It also contains tips and tricks on self-care and if you may fail an exam or fail to sit an exam.
